Gibsons, B.C. author Charlotte Morganti nominated for award, April, 2024

Charlotte Morganti's novel, The End Game, is a finalist for Crime Writers of Canada's 2024 award of excellence for Best Crime First Novel. The End Game was published in September 2023. Set in the British Columbia interior, The End Game follows part-time bartender/part-time private Investigator Gabe Gabrieli as he races to solve deadly sabotage of mining sites in the mountains in order to save his kid brother from a murder charge.

The End Game is more than a private eye mystery. It is a story of redemption, belonging, and the dynamics of friendship and family.

Morganti is no stranger to the Crime Writers of Canada's awards of excellence. Two of her manuscripts were short listed for the Best Unpublished Novel and her short story "All My Darlings" was a finalist for Best Crime Short Story in 2022.

Crime Writers of Canada is an organization designed to raise the profile of Canadian Crime Writers. More information about the organization and the Awards of Excellence can be found here: <https://crimewriterscanada.com/>
